

NOSTALGIA 9052

Benjamin Amaru: graceful, romantically nostalgic. He has already released around 100 songs, including his first longplayer "i always remember all of my dreams" last year. Some of the songs vary so much between shadow worlds and moments of happiness that it is clear Benjamin Amaru transforms what he sees, experiences and feels into music. On his NOSTALGIA 9052 tour, Benjamin Amaru returns to his roots and let the audience experience his emotional stories even more intensely. Songs and feelings that may have already been forgotten will be revived and the nostalgia that arises from them will be celebrated. "I want to build a catalogue that shows more than just a musical personality. It should document the career of an evolving musician," says Benjamin Amaru and presents a unique NOSTALGIA 9052 concert experience with an insanely talented, dynamic band, who have unmistakable fun together on stage.

Benjamin Amaru is a singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist who grew up in a multicultural family in the green hills of eastern Switzerland. Amaru sold over 10'000 tickets for his recent 'dreamers' Europe-Tour, generates 22 million streams a year on Spotify, has already played the coveted Colors Session, was part of a Zalando Men DACH campaign with Real Madrid football star David Alaba, was nominated for 'Best Swiss Act' at the MTV EMAs and captivated audiences on various TV shows such as «ZDF-Morgenmagazin» and «Inas Nacht». However, Benjamin Amaru makes no secret of the fact that his favourite memories are the live moments he has already shared with his audiences at home and abroad. This includes Openair St. Gallen, Gurten Festival or gigs abroad such as Reeperbahn Festival in Hamburg, sold-out club shows in the Netherlands, Germany, Austria and Switzerland or now also in England at the Great Escape Festival.